Bulldog Bucks

What is Bulldog Bucks?

Bulldog Bucks is an online account based debit card program offered to the campus community. Bulldog Bucks are accepted as payment at the Bookstore, Food Services Retail Operations, and at several other on-campus retail sites. In addition, Bulldog Bucks may be used to pay for copying, printing, vending, and laundry services in the residence halls. Credit may be added via the web, or in person at specific locations across campus.

What Can Bulldog Bucks be Used For?

On Campus

Bulldog Bucks may be used to pay for the following:

- Printing in computer labs and the libraries (sometimes we get calls from people in different labs using "PHAROS" for printing. EITS has no control over these issues, and we send them to bulldog bucks support).
- Photo copying
- Laundry in Residence Halls
- Bookstore Purchases
- Open Campus Retail including:
  - College of Education Supplies
  - Food Services cash operations
  - UGA Golf Course
  - Library Fees and Fines
  - Parking Services Parking Lot E03 (Pay by Space lot)
  - Ramsey Center Services
  - School of Environmental Design Supplies
  - Tate Center Movie Theater
  - Tate Center Game Room
  - Tate Center Copy Services
  - Vending (80 Coke & Snack machines on campus)

Off Campus

In addition, Bulldog Bucks is accepted at more than 95 Off Campus Locations. A complete listing of these off-campus merchants can be found here:
