Where is the eLC course I'm taking? (Students)

eLearning Commons courses will typically only appear the day before the first day of classes. You should consult your course instructor if you do not see an eLC course covering the class for which you are enrolled.

General changes in eLC usually take 1 business day to show. During drop-add periods, keep in mind that your class will not show until the following business day.

Related Articles

- Where is the eLC course I'm taking? (Students)
- Why am I receiving a directory error message when logging into eLC?
- How do I access courses from the old version of eLC?
- Why am I getting an “Session Already Active” error message in eLC?
- What Is eLearning Commons (eLC)?