What is the IDM System?

The Identity Management System (IDM) is the system responsible for identifying all persons affiliated with the University of Georgia, including students, faculty, staff, dependents, alumni, and potentially others.

Related Articles

- What is the IDM System?
- What is the IDM Portal?
- How to Use the Identifier Translation Tools and IDM Search Tool