Network maintenances Jan. 25, March 7 essential to support network upgrade

On Saturday, January 25, and Saturday, March 7, beginning at 6 a.m., EITS will conduct network maintenances. These maintenances will result in outages of campus Internet access and campus information systems. These maintenances are necessary to support an expansion and upgrade of network services that will allow EITS to continue to provide ample bandwidth and capacity for the University. Learn more here.
