Connecting to the Internet

PAWS-Secure is the official wireless internet network for UGA students and employees. Ethernet (wired) connections are also available assuming your device supports it.

Table of Contents

- 1) Connecting to PAWS-Secure Wireless.
- 2) Connecting your wired device in the dorms.
- 3) Connecting your wired device in your office or employee work space.
- Want more?

1) Connecting to PAWS-Secure Wireless.

Article Here

This guide will explain how to connect to the PAWS-Secure wireless network.

2) Connecting your wired device in the dorms.

Article Here

This guide details how to connect a wired internet device in your dorm room.

3) Connecting your wired device in your office or employee work space.

Article Here

EITS suggest you reach out to your department's local IT team for assistance in this case.

Want more?

Check out the EITS Help Desk Knowledge base!